CAMPISI

300g jar

21⁹⁹ each
600g jar

The Campisi family business was founded in 1854 in Marzamemi, Pachino, Italy. The use of ancient techniques, dating back to the Arab period, refined over time, the drying and seasoning of the tuna products, has made Salvatore Campisi worthy of being considered one of the last connoisseurs of traditions, experience and care of the past.

Campisi Says: "Our goal is to continuously research those products that have made the history of our land, we put on the market the famous Garum Excellens, a condiment based on fresh local fish and spices used by the ancient Romans in the fifth century BC. It is highly sought after by connoisseurs of traditional cuisine".
